

Nanofiltration of Solvents

- Composite nanofiltration membranes comprised of thin, mesoporous selective polymer layer coated onto microporous support
- Applications for separations of solvent/oil mixtures, extraction of valuable vegetable proteins from grain
- High fluxes, resistance to organic solvents, operational cost savings

